Sub: Invitation to register for the Online Course on 'Developing as an Online Practitioner'

Ref : A D.O. Letter from AIU bearing No. AIU, RES/QASPIR IV/2020 dated 2nd

June, 2020.

Dear Sir,/Madam,

Greetings from Internal Quality Assurance Cell of BKNMU!!!

With reference to the above cited letter, and as per the instruction of Hon.Vice Chancellor, all the Faculty Members, Research Scholars and students of Bhakta Kavi Narsinh Mehta University, Junagadh are informed that Association of Indian University in collaboration with Quality Assurance Strategic Planning Institutional Research (QASPIR) has launched an online Course on "Developing Digital Practitioners" for Faculty Members, Research Scholars and students of Indian Universities and other higher education institutions. The course is being conducted free of cost and can be undertaken by the participants in their convenience. This programme is helpful for capacity building among the faculty members to maximize the use of technology and online practices, especially during this time of COVID-19 pandemic.

The faculty members, research scholars and students of University Departments & affiliated colleges of Bhakta Kavi Narsinh Mehta University are invited to join this course to develop knowledge and acquire skills of online transactions of teaching-learning. The special feature of this course is that it is not time or schedule bound. It gives flexibility to the participants to register for the course and complete it at their convenience.

I request all the principals of the colleges and heads of the Departments/PG Centers to circulate this invitation to their faculty members, research scholars and students to register themselves for "Developing Digital Practitioners" course on <https://qaspir.com/developing-as-an-online-practitioner/>. You all are requested to submit course completion certificate on iqacbknmu@gmail.com.

Maximum participation is anticipated. Thanks.
