Yudhisthira continued to climb up the mountain path. When he was at the end of his journey, he saw a strange light all around him. He recognized Indra, the King of the gods, coming towards him in his chariot. When he came close, Indra stepped down from the chariot and said, "Get into the chariot Yudhisthira. I have come here to take you to heaven. "But Yudhisthira refused to do so because he did not want to go to heaven without his brothers and Draupadi. He therefore said, "Unless they all come with me, I will not go with you."

When Indra heard this, he smiled and said, "My dear Yudhisthira, you need not worry about them. They are already in heaven. You alone will be allowed to enter heaven with your living body. Please get into the chariot."

A leader's mission is to direct the actions of others. The most important quality of a leader is will power. He must know how to make decisions and take responsibilities.

Naturally, before making a decision he must inform himself thoroughly and weigh all the circumstances. When he has decided and given his command, he should stick to it, unless some unexpected obstacle is encountered. The leader should have great moral courage, for frequently the decisions are painful to him. He should be positive and should not have prejudice for any. He should be punctual and have a good moral character.

Questions :-

1. What is the leader's mission?
2. What is the most important quality of a leader?
3. What should the leader know?
4. What should leader do before making decisions?
5. Why should the leader have great moral courage?
6. What are the qualities of a good leader?
7. Should the leader have prejudice towards their subordinates?
